

Camp Taloali, Inc. Stayton, Oregon

Formed in 1974 Camp Taloali is an Oregon nonprofit, tax exempt, public benefit corporation. The camp's mission is to provide opportunities for Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing youth to be exposed to an outdoor environment, realize their full potential for leadership development, and have opportunities for success.

Camp Taloali, Inc. operates on 111 acres, 17 building, complex and attracts Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing children ages 6-18 from throughout Oregon and Washington as well as other states.

Your tax deductible membership will help support our summer program, operating expenses, and maintenance on this complex.

Please join us in preserving forever this idyllic setting for future generations of youth in the Deaf community.
